EARLY MORNING FIRE ROUTS OUT FAMILY

Parents and Children Are Forced to Flee in Blaze on Hartford Avenue

Damage estimated at, $2,500 by Chief William J. Noble was done at an early morning blaze in a tene ment occupied by Fred C. Dohring at 240 Hartford avenue in a house owned by Mrs. Clara McGuire. Engine companies No. 1 and 3 responded to a still alarm at 2:15 o'clock to extinguish the blaze but the fire was burning so briskly when they arrived that Driver Richard Collins rang in an alarm from Box 412 which brought out Engine Co. No. 5 and the two

The firemen found the fire a difficult one to fight because it was on the third floor of a wooden structure. Four children, besides the mother and father were forced to fiee from their home scantily attired. Some of the children were sleeping in the bedroom in which it is believed the fire started. The contents of a bedroom and kitchen were completely de stroyed, the partition between rooms was burned out and at several places in both rooms the flames ate through the ceiling into the attic. The firemen arrived in time, however, to prevent the fire from spreading adjoining rooms and into the attic.

The fire is believed to have started from a match which had been carelessly thrown on the bedroom floor after a small "all night lamp" had been lighted. Chief Noble expressed the belief that the fire had been smouldering for some time before it burst into flames.

The Dohring family did not carry any insurance on the bedroom or kitchen furniture which is a complete loss while Mrs. MaGuire carried but a small insurance on the house
